Re: Pro-Tec Contracting Corp

East Hanover, New Jersey

To Whom It May Concern:

RXR Realty is a property management company that provides many services to prospective tenants and building owners. One of the services a management company must do for the building owner is ensure the building envelope is maintained and water tight.

Pro-Tec Contracting Corp has been a long time resource of mine for services such as waterproofing, restoration and power washing.

I have found Pro-Tec Contracting to be knowledgeable, responsible and a trustworthy company. RXR Realty intends to continue its collaboration with Pro-Tec for a long time since we have established a respectable relationship.

Respectfully yours,
